

Washington, D.C. Jan'y 11, 1891

My dear Sir:

I suppose you are not yet out of the hands of the Philistines, but I hope the Boycott on former students may help them what you feared it might be. I found the appropriation for the first year had been transmitted to Vermont and, as I have not learned to the contrary, I suppose it must have been paid over to the N. H. State ag. Coll. Upon looking over the Legislative acts of the last Session, I did not find any acceptance on the part of the N. H. Legislature of 1890 act of Congress, and I much feared that our
